

Revising: Evaluate Autobiographical Narratives

DIRECTIONS Use the following questions to evaluate your autobiographical narrative or that of one of your classmates.

- Answer the questions.
- Rate the parts of the narrative. The lowest score is 1, and the highest is 4.
- Make at least three suggestions for revising the narrative.

1. How does the beginning grab the audience's attention?	Rating 1 2 3 4 Suggestion:
2. What background information is included?	Rating 1 2 3 4 Suggestion:
3. What action details are provided? Are they in chronological order?	Rating 1 2 3 4 Suggestion:
4. What descriptive details support the action details?	Rating 1 2 3 4 Suggestion:
5. What meaning or importance of the incident is provided?	Rating 1 2 3 4 Suggestion: